LOATH TO LEAVE the speaker's desk at last night's civic election forum in the high school auditorium, Mayor C. E. Oliver, right, tries to continue his address despite the insistence of Frank Kluck, chairman for the forum, that his allotted time had expired and it would not be fair to the other candidate if he continued. The meeting, including reports from school board, parks board and the various city council committees, was sponsored jointly by city council and the Penticton Ratepayers Association of which Mr. Kluck is president. Some 600 persons attended but most of them walked out when the mayor tried to continue past his allotted 15 minutes.

500 Leave Meeting as Oliver Talks Overtime

Close to 500 people walked out at the civic election forum in the high school auditorium, when he continued to "continue" speaking after his allotted time.

An earlier request from the mayor resulted in a five-minute extension of the speaking time for the two mayoralty candidates but this still wasn't enough for the chief magistrate.

M. P. Finnelly, only other nominee for the mayoralty, did not find it necessary to use all the 15 minutes allotted for his address during which he charged that people all over the province are laughing at Penticton because of incidents at city council meetings during the past nine months.

In a reference to two suspended city works officials by the mayor during the summer, Mr. Finnelly declared that if elected he would never elect a civil servant when the employees were in a position to fight back and if the matter were serious enough, would discuss it thoroughly with city council before taking any action.

TEAMWORK NEEDED
"We need teamwork at city hall to solve our problems," Mr. Finnelly continued. "That doesn't mean that council members are to become rubber stamps of the mayor. This teamwork must extend beyond city hall to the Board of Trade, Penticton Festival Association, service clubs and all other community organizations."

"On the city's water problems, Mr. Finnelly said there was no question that a gravity supply was the best.

"We must develop every bit of gravity water we can," he continued. "But only after we are absolutely sure that we can live under our dams. We must be careful and doubly assured that our dam projects are properly surveyed and that there is no chance of their giving way as has happened in the past."

Mayor Oliver, during most of his 15 minutes, attempted to justify his past actions as the city's leader. Claiming that the bulk of council had been against him, he said he felt that at last he was "beginning to educate them."

"At one time last summer, one alderman was away, three were against me and two for me—and I was the mayor," he said.

"DON'T UNDERSTAND ME"
Earlier while introducing various committee heads, the mayor said, "I have no fault to find with civil employees. They just don't understand me—and I don't understand them."

The mayor said the reason he sometimes went ahead and did things on his own was that things had to be done "and I had no time to bother with those who disagreed."

Claiming general incompetence in civic affairs, the mayor said much money had been wasted in the past through carelessness. One of the incidents mentioned was the despatch of a bulldozer for a day's work at the nuisance grounds where, the mayor claimed, it was left working for 26 days because "everybody had forgotten about it."

When advised by Frank Kluck, chairman of the forum, that he had used up his allotted time, Mayor Oliver said he still had things to tell the people and made as if to keep on talking. Chairman Kluck asked him to sit down but the mayor was obviously reluctant to do so.

Almost in violation of the vast majority of the 600 people present stood up and made for the exits. A planned question period was lost in the ensuing departure.

LIBERAL CRITICIZES REVIEW

Canada's Big Trading Deficit Cut—Churchill

OTTAWA (CP)—Trade Minister Churchill said yesterday encouraging progress has been made toward reduction of Canada's big trading deficit.

At the end of the minister's statement to the Commons opening debate on his department's $23,000,000 spending estimates for the current year, Liberal trade critic William M. Benidickson said Mr. Churchill's review of Canada's trade position was more significant for what he left out than what he said.

The minister made no attempt to forecast the trade situation that might develop in the coming year. But he referred to trade figures for the first 10 months of this year that show Canada's overall trade deficit eased to $737,500,000 from $755,200,000 in the corresponding period of 1956.

NO DETAILS
During the year, said Mr. Churchill, Canada exported some products it hadn't been selling abroad before. He did not detail these products. But offsetting this, he added, was a general softening of world commodity markets. A decline in output of United States manufacturers and new trade restrictions by Britain had affected Canada's export position.

He quoted figures issued Thursday by the bureau of statistics showing that in the first 10 months of this year Canada's exports totalled $4,046,100,000 compared to $4,026,800,000 in the similar period last year while imports were $4,783,600,000, up slightly from $4,782,000,000 last year.

The agency, in a statement following the claim Friday by Communist leader Nikita Khrushchev that the rocket fell on United States territory Dec. 1, said: "According to available data the remnants of the third stage carrier-rocket fell on the territory of Alaska and on the western coast of North America."

Tass' statement that rocket remnants came down on the west coast could mean the Alaska Peninsula, British Columbia, or both.

Khrushchev accused the Americans of refusing to return the rocket.

"They don't want to give it back to us," he said. "We relied on them, trusting in their decency, but they didn't live up to it."

Tass said "data obtained by observation on the carrier rocket of the first artificial satellite of the earth have made it possible to establish that towards midnight on Nov. 30 the period of rotation round the earth of the rocket began to diminish appreciably and it began to lose height."

Credentials of Hungary Refused

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP) The United Nations credentials committee Friday refused to accept the credentials of Hungary's delegation to the General Assembly and rejected a Soviet bid to unseat Nationalist China.

U.S. Ambassador James J. Wadsworth put in a resolution urging that no action be taken now on the Budapest delegation's credentials. The committee took the same action last year after Soviet troops smashed the Hungarian rebellion.

The move does not prevent the Hungarian delegation from sitting in the assembly and its committees but holds up official approval of its membership.

Crime Wave Hits Kelowna

KELOWNA (CP) — Police here say are "very concerned" about a series of crimes in normally-quiet Kelowna, capped by the theft of more than $500 in Christmas-party money from the Junior High School.

The theft was disclosed yesterday. Police said thieves forced four locks to get to the money, which belonged to students.

There have been at least six break-ins in two weeks. Loot has run into hundreds of dollars in cash and goods and there has been considerable property damage. Still unsolved is the Simpson robbery where a safe containing $13,000 was stolen. It was later recovered with contents intact.

Recently a youth was hospitalized after a severe beating. Another had his jaw broken in a fight.

Sgt. W. B. Irving of the RCMP said he is "very concerned." Six juveniles have been apprehended and will appear in court next week. Police disclosed offensive weapons of all descriptions were discovered in a clubhouse built by the youths.

4 Girls Die In Smashup

HAMBURG, Ark. (AP)—A high school football team and three other teen-age girls were killed Friday night when an automobile crashed into a trailer truck on a rain-soaked highway.

Dead were Kay Carver, 17-year-old football queen of Hamburg High School; Myrtle Bunn and her cousin Jimmie Nell Ruff, both 17, and Fay Henderson, 18.

They were travelling in a car apparently driven by Miss Henderson and were on their way to pick up a classmate as the five could attend a banquet in honor of the school's football team.

Reds Claim Rocket Fell on West Coast

LONDON (Reuters) — The carrier-rocket of Russia's first satellite fell "on the territory of Alaska and on the western coast of North America," the Soviet news agency Tass said today.

The agency, in a statement following the claim Friday by Communist leader Nikita Khrushchev that the rocket fell on United States territory Dec. 1, said: "According to available data the remnants of the third stage carrier-rocket fell on the territory of Alaska and on the western coast of North America."

Tass' statement that rocket remnants came down on the west coast could mean the Alaska Peninsula, British Columbia, or both.

Taxpayers, Car Buyers to Gain

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada's income taxpayers will benefit next year, and buyers of new cars will gain immediately, from a thinly-spread cut of $178,000,000 a year in federal taxes.

Finance Minister Donald Fleming presented this tax-change program in the Commons last night as the realization of a Progressive Conservative election promise of tax reductions.

Opposition spokesmen immediately charged that it fell far short of the government's election pledges and bitterly attacked the 52-year-old minister for not presenting a full-fledged budget.

Mr. Fleming's statement which he didn't claim to be a formal budget speech, contained these main proposals:

1. Personal income tax reductions starting Jan. 1 and ranging up to $30 for some taxpayers, and more for those with children and other dependents. This will cost the treasury $146,000,000 a year.

2. A $12,000,000-a-year paring down of corporation tax revenues by reductions ranging to a maximum $1,350 for companies earning over $20,000.

3. An immediate cut to 7% per cent in the 10 per cent excise tax on new automobiles. The change will total $20,000,000 a year. There is no change in 1957 income taxes, for which taxpayers will file returns next spring.

More than half the drop in personal income tax comes from reducing tax rates on the first $2,000 of taxable income — the amount on which the levy is made after all exemptions and deductions are counted. All 4-500,000 taxpayers will benefit to some extent.

15 PER CENT SAVING
That change will mean a 15 per cent tax saving for persons with taxable incomes of less than $1,000 and an 11 per cent saving for those in the $1,000-$2,000 bracket. A flat $30-a-year cut goes to all with taxable incomes over $2,000.

The other change in personal income taxes will boost the basic exemption for children and other dependents by $100. It will rise to $250 from $150 for "family allowance" children to age 16, and to $500 from $400 for other dependent children and other dependents.

The minister said his reductions will cost the treasury $26,000,000 in the current fiscal year ending March 31, and leave him with an $80,000,000 surplus.

This compares with the forecast of a $152,000,000 surplus.

Building to Get Gas Fired Air System

VANCOUVER — (CP) — An $85,000 office and maintenance building now being constructed by Inland Natural Gas Co. on Roy Avenue in Penticton will have a natural gas-fired air conditioning system, the company said in a release today.

The air conditioner, one of the first of the natural gas type in B.C., will "beat the heat" in summer while a natural gas heating system warms the building in winter.

Baby Budget Lacks Vision Says CCF'er

VANCOUVER (CP)—Provincial CCF leader Robert Strachan said today the baby budget presented to Parliament Friday "is completely without vision."

"There is no indication at all of their providing the millions of dollars required for projects to put our unemployed back to work again," he said.

Charles Thompson, president of the B.C. Automobile Association, said the 2½ per cent cut in excise tax on automobiles is a step in the right direction.

"But it won't alter sales a great deal. The difference of $40 to $50 on standard models isn't enough to stimulate sales."

Liberal leader Arthur Lalg said Finance Minister Donald Fleming is "not being realistic" in predicting a surplus of this year's fiscal operation.

Kutchuk charged that the three villagers were killed by EOKA, the Greek Cypriot underground.

Police reported that the slayings of the three Turks in Paphos appeared to be the result of a personal feud.

Pupils Stone Troops as Cyprus Strike Spreads

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — A general strike spread today as 2,000 students, violently celebrating a forthcoming United Nations debate on Cyprus, attacked troops and police with stones.

A baton-wielding riot squad of Turkish Cypriot police used tear gas to clear a square where students had refused efforts of unarmed British police to disperse them. Shots were fired to halt the stoning of troops. Twenty or thirty students were reported

ON DEBATES

Acts to Repeal Closure Rule

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister Diefenbaker today filed formal notice in the Commons of his intention to seek repeal of the closure rule on debates, thus starting action on a move promised since his election campaign last spring.

There was no indication of when debate may start on the move, which is expected to arouse some controversy and probably start echoes of last year's pipeline debate when the closure rule was last applied.

In the Commons on a Stanley Knowles, deputy CCF leader, asked whether the government will follow "the time-honored tradition" of referring the proposal to a Commons rules committee headed by Speaker Roland Michener.

Works Minister Howard Green, government House leader, said that is not the government's intention.

Both the Progressive Conservative and CCF parties, who opposed the former Liberal government's trans-Canada gas pipeline legislation last year, bitterly criticized the use then of the closure rule to limit debate on the measure and force its passage in time to meet a government deadline.

$2,550 in Soggy Paper Recovered From Machine

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Employees in a waste paper processing plant Friday dug $2,550 in large bills out of a soggy mass of paper being chewed up by a shredding machine.

Work was stopped at the plant after Clarence Stewart, 28, spotted a $100 bill that had come to the top of a heap of paper in the machine.

TODAY'S BULLETINS

Stops Selling at Prices Below Cost

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department announced today that Safeway Stores, Inc., has agreed to stop selling food products at prices below cost and to cease operating retail stores below the cost of doing business. The government filed a complaint against the food store chain Nov. 1, 1955. It alleged an attempt to monopolize the retail grocery business in Texas and New Mexico in violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

Explosion, Fire Burns Out Family

VANCOUVER (CP) — Eight people were made homeless early today in an explosion and fire at a North Surrey home. Part of the house was destroyed. Two youths, Melvyn and Donald Tause, were alone in the house at the time. They escaped uninjured and salvaged some furniture. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rouse and four other children were not at home.

More Visits Planned to Red China

OTTAWA (CP)—Trade Minister Churchill today hinted at further visits to Communist China by government officials for the purpose of developing trade with that country. He said in the Commons that the preliminary report of C. H. Forsyth-Smith, Canadian trade commissioner in Hong Kong who went to Communist China a few weeks ago, suggested many steps to follow up his visit.

CONCILIATOR APPOINTED IN VALLEY PHONE WAGE DISPUTE

VICTORIA (CP)—J. C. Sherlock of Kelowna has been appointed conciliator officer in a dispute between the Okanagan Telephone Company and 87 employees, members of the Federation of Telephone Workers of B.C.

The two parties have been unable to agree on wages, holiday pay, vacations and other terms of employment, the Labor Relations Board said.

Involved are 62 plant division employees and 24 in the clerical division.

Withdraw Forces From Ifni Sector

MADRID (Reuters)—Spain today withdrew her armed forces from the southern sector of the Ifni enclave only three days after announcing it was "entirely under Spanish control."

An army announcement said Spanish troops have evacuated the frontier town of Tiliuin after withdrawing all the garrison equipment there.

Tiliuin, on the Moroccan border, was one of three major towns Spanish forces claimed Friday to have wrested from Moroccan irregular troops since fighting began in the Spanish enclave Nov. 23.

The Spanish government has decided that the guerrilla forces are too strong along the Moroccan frontier to allow Spain to hang on to the 84-mile-long border area.

The cabinet announced early today it will mobilize "all necessary resources" to put down the guerrilla attacks.

Elopers Strike Legal Blockade

EDINBURGH (AP) — Society elopers Tessa Kennedy and Donnie Elwes struck a legal blockade in Scotland today in their efforts to marry despite court orders.

A Scottish judge granted an interim order to prevent the wealthy 19-year-old daughter of shipping magnate Geoffrey Kennedy from marrying the 26-year-old son of portrait painter Simon Elwes.

The couple have been hiding in Scotland for a week, since an English court ordered them not to marry and to come home. Kennedy asked the Scottish court for the injunction to prevent the marriage of his blonde daughter. She is a Protestant; Elwes a Roman Catholic. Kennedy's lawyer applied for the order on the ground an English court already had forbidden the marriage.

Pipeline Sale Request Denied

OTTAWA (CP)—The board of transport commissioners today dismissed an application by Westspur Pipe Line Company for permission to sell to Producers Pipelines Limited part of its pipe line in Saskatchewan.

The board said the proposed sale would be to a company expressly prohibited under the Pipe Lines Act from operating the stretch in question, since after the sale the line would continue to serve points lying outside the province.

The board said Producers is a company having no authority to operate pipelines for the transportation of oil or gas beyond the province.

The application was heard here Nov. 5. The companies are jointly run.

14 Complete Projectionists' Course in City

The number of people in Penticton who know how to run a movie projector has increased by 14 as a result of a two-evening course sponsored by the Penticton Film Council. Gordon Harris of the council was instructor.

A total of 16 persons started the course with 14 completing it. To gain further proficiency, the 14 graduates will practice in their own homes.

Those taking the course were from among clubs and home groups who are film council members. An RCMP officer was also among the group since police officers often have safety films on hand for showing.

The 14 graduates each received a "Basic projectionist's license." The A-class will be granted after a year of regular experience in operating a projector.

The 14 taking the course learned the intricacies of five different kinds of 16 mm. machines.

Williston to Discuss B.C. Forest Report

VANCOUVER (CP)—The provincial government's first extensive comments on the Royal Commission report on B.C.'s forest industry are expected to be made Jan. 16 at the annual convention here of the B.C. Truck Loggers' Association.

In a speech scheduled for the meeting, Lands and Forests Minister Williston will discuss "the government and the Sloan report."

There has been no extended comment on the lengthy report of Chief Justice Gordon Sloan, who conducted the Royal inquiry, since it was published several months ago.

About 1,600 persons are expected to attend the convention. Among other guests will be federal Transport Minister George Hees and Lieut.-Governor Frank Ross.

Navy Blimp Sinks in Sea, Eight Rescued

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A U.S. Navy blimp in distress settled and sank in the turbulent Atlantic 55 miles off Georgia but the eight men aboard slid down dangling lines into a destroyer's boats and were rescued without getting their feet wet, the navy reports.

None of the eight—the entire crew—was injured, a spokesman said.

The big airship went into the water last night, the navy said, after complete engine failure.

One by one the eight men on the settling blimp all clutched down a rope into the small boats put out by the destroyer, all getting out before the blimp finally touched down and sank.

B.C. Tourist Industry Valued At $103 Million

VICTORIA (CP)—The tourist industry in B.C. hit an estimated $103,000,000 this year, Recreation Minister Earle C. Westwood said yesterday.

This is an increase of $13,000,000 in the value of the industry a year ago.

The number of tourists from the U.S. was said to be about the same as last year and that foreign vehicles entering B.C. on permits went well over the 250,000 mark during the first 10 months of the year.

Mr. Westwood said that according to estimates, U.S. visitors will have spent $48,000,000 by the end of the year. Canadians from other provinces are expected to spend an additional $35,000,000 while British Columbians will spend a total of $20,000,000 holidaying in their own province.

Daniels Can't Sing in City Cabaret Again

NEW YORK (AP)—Singer Billy Daniels has lost his New York City cabaret entertainer's license as the result of a Harlem bottle club shooting nearly two years ago.

Daniels, 42, was fined $200 and given a four-months suspended jail sentence by Judge George Carney.

Then followed a statement by Deputy Police Commissioner James McElroy, in charge of cabaret licenses.

"Daniels can never work in a night club here again even though he pleaded guilty to only a misdemeanor, illegal possession of a gun."

The singer assertedly fired a gun in the Seventy-One Club Jan. 31, 1956, wounding fight trainer James R. Jackson.

NATO Military Conference Set

LUXEMBOURG (Reuters)—General Henri Spaak, secretary general of NATO, said today that a military conference of Atlantic pact countries will be held next March "to examine all necessary reforms and modifications in the fields of strategy and armaments."

He told a press conference here that "it would be a great error if all the NATO countries began to reorganize their armed forces individually now, and present NATO with an accomplished fact."

Spaak said the principal questions on the agenda of the scheduled Dec. 16 NATO heads of government meeting will be:

Present working of the Atlantic alliance, inter-dependence of the 15 member countries, division of military forces, scientific and technical research and sharing the results of this research.

Dollar Holding Order Given

PARIS (AP)—French banks have been ordered to deposit 30 per cent of their dollar holdings with the Bank of France, banking circles said today.

These banking officials said the amount involved will run to about $600,000,000. This will bolster France's depleted foreign currency reserves.

The order applying only to dollar deposits of French residents went into effect last Monday.

Meanwhile, Premier Felix Gaillard made financial concessions Friday to keep the wavering Socialist party in his month-old cabinet. The concessions were:

1. Not to cut food subsidies, as fiscal intention, except for raising the government price support of flour, and

2. To grant civil servants most of their demands for a higher basic wage. In two stages, by next July the base will be raised to 220,000 francs or $528 equivalent annually before allowances.

B.C. Welfare Official Wins U.S. Award

CHICAGO (AP)—Top awards of the American Public Welfare Association went Friday night to a Michigan educationist and a British Columbia woman welfare official.

They are Fedele F. Faurl, dean of the school of social work at the University of Michigan, and Amy Leigh, assistant director of welfare in B.C.

Miss Leigh's citation for the Merit Award was "in recognition and grateful appreciation of her contribution in the public welfare field not only in her own province of British Columbia, but in all of Canada and in the United States."

Gov't Staves off Marketing Vote

OTTAWA (CP)—For the third time this session, the government staved off Friday a vote on a CCF member's bill which would make the Canadian wheat board the sole marketing agency for flax and rye.

Trade Minister Churchill "talked out" the bill sponsored by E. G. McCullough, Moose Mountain, for 25 minutes.

Mr. Churchill contended that Mr. McCullough had not made out a sufficiently good case for placing flax and rye alongside wheat, oats and barley under the marketing authority of the wheat board.

British Troops Sent to Bolster Colony Forces

BELIZE, British Honduras (AP)—British troops have been sent to this Central American crown colony following official charges that a leading politician here had discussed union with neighboring Guatemala.

Troops were flown in from Jamaica Friday to reinforce the regiment stationed at this Caribbean capital. Another company landed in the British frigate Uster and a second Royal Navy ship was reported cruising nearby.

Missile Hits Target Area

WASHINGTON (AP)—A U.S. Air Force intercontinental guided missile—the Snark—flew its full range in a test this week and hit a target area in the South Atlantic, the defense department reported Friday.

The missile, essentially a pilotless jet bomber, has a range of about 5,000 miles and travels at about the speed of sound. It is considerably slower than ballistic missiles.

The Snark has been accepted as an operating weapon by the air force, which plans to set up the first squadron armed with Snarks this month.

Charles Loses Cap in Bowling Before Audience

HEADLEY, England (AP)—Prince Charles took a deep bow to the audience at a school concert here Friday night—and his school cap fell off.

The nine-year-old heir to the throne, who had been taking part in a carol singing and some of his classmates at Chesham School, looked most embarrassed. One of the parents who were watching said:

"He blushed bright red and stooped to pick it up. But he seemed so excited and flustered that he dropped it again."

Finally the prince plunked the cap firmly on his head and walked off the stage with the other boys to renewed applause and chuckles from the audience.

Ike May Go to Meeting in Paris

LONDON (AP)—U.S. Defense Secretary Neil McElroy said today the odds are "quite strong" President Eisenhower will attend the NATO summit meeting in Paris Dec. 16.

McElroy arrived here from Washington for talks with British officials.

He told reporters who asked about the prospects of Eisenhower's flying to Paris:

"It is not yet certain. He will have to get a final clearance from his doctors, but I would say the odds are quite strong that he will be there."

RED DELICIOUS

The Hi-Early Red Delicious has the reputation of being the best of the Double Red Delicious. Hi-Early is a proven apple.

This year George Neft had a crop of 1500 packed boxes of about 60 trees from five to nine years of age. These packed out 88% extra fancy, 8% fancy, and on account of limb-rub and hail, 4% cee grade.

These trees are true Delicious which store as well as any Delicious and have better eye appeal than most, coloring early enough to pick at proper maturity. This year 139 to 143 days from full bloom.

Only one nursery is propagating the Hi-Early but our local nurseries have been fortunate in procuring some of these excellent trees.

FIRST AID TO AILING HOUSE

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

FINISHING DRAWERS

QUESTION: I have purchased an unfinished dresser which I plan to enamel. How should the inside of the drawers be finished?

ANSWER: Finishing the inside of the drawers is a very good idea for several reasons. One is that it will be easier to clean them; another is that the clothing or lingerie stored there will be kept clean longer and snags in the fabric will be eliminated. A couple of thin coats of pure white shellac is sufficient for the purpose. Thin the shellac half and half with denatured alcohol. To obtain a professional appearance, rub the wood down with "000" sandpaper or "00" steel wool and wipe off all the dust, then apply the finish.

GLUING TILES

QUESTION: Some of the linoleum tiles in my kitchen are loosened. How can I glue them down?

ANSWER: Get a small quantity of linoleum paste from your neighborhood dealer in floor coverings. Before resetting the tiles, wash or scrape off all of the old paste. If ordinary linoleum paste was used, it can be washed off with hot water and a scrubbing brush. Rubbing with sandpaper would undoubtedly be less messy and there will be no chance of loosening the adjoining tiles.

CRACKED CONCRETE

QUESTION: Last fall I extended our concrete entrance porch by 3' on each side. During the winter, both joints cracked where the extensions joined the original porch concrete. One addition even sank slightly, apparently as the result of ground settling. How can I mend the cracks, which seem to be deep? Can I put a new layer of concrete on the part which sank in order to level it off?

ANSWER: It sounds to me as though you did not give the extension sufficient foundations. I hope no more settling will occur, because any repairs you made would have to be done over again. The cracks can be filled in the usual manner of widening to at least an inch, using hammer and cold chisel (wear goggles to protect your eyes from flying chips). Brush out all loose particles, wet the surrounding area thoroughly, and pack in a stiff but workable mixture of one part portland cement and three parts clean and coarse sand. Keep repairs damp for several days to allow slow curing of the concrete. Leveling the concrete is possible, but it should have a depth of at least 1 inch at the thinnest point. You cannot "feather edge" concrete successfully.

SIZING WALLBOARD

QUESTION: I want to paint wallboard. Is it necessary to size the wallboard first?

ANSWER: If you are planning to use oil paint, use a coat of wallboard sealer first. For water-mixed paints no sizing is necessary.

DULLING VARNISH

QUESTION: Varnish on the knotty pine walls in our basement recreation room becomes dull. The wood was coated with a clear shellac before varnishing. What causes this condition?

ANSWER: The dulling of varnish is generally caused by the presence of moisture in the air plus a fair amount of dust. You should be able to restore the gloss by cleaning the wood with one of the wax base liquid floor cleaning preparations. Another treatment is to wash down the walls with turpentine and then apply a thin coat of paste wax. In either case, the wax on the wood, when dry, should be well rubbed with soft cloths.

HUMIDITY

QUESTION: We have a barometer which also indicates humidity. The latter reading is never more than ten per cent in our home and usually is around two or three. Is this healthful? We have tested this in other homes, and the readings go up to 50 or 60. What should the reading be for proper atmosphere?

ANSWER: The general recommendation is to maintain a moisture content in the air of between 40 per cent and 60 per cent. When outside temperature is near zero, the lower humidity reading is desired. I suggest that you install a humidifier to increase the moisture content in the air; it is much too dry.

RIMS IN LAUNDRY TUBS

QUESTION: Two of the metal

rims which hold stoppers in our laundry tubs have come out. We have inquired everywhere to find some cement to put them in place, but nobody seems to know anything. Can you tell me what to use?

ANSWER: One of the nationally known rubber companies makes a cement that has good holding powers and you should be able to get it through your hardware dealer or auto accessories shop. If not available, make a paste of litharge and glycerin, and replace the rims, using a liberal quantity of the paste. Plumbing supply shops handle the litharge and drug stores sell the glycerin.

DISCOLORED LINOLEUM

QUESTION: My kitchen counter top is of linoleum and has become very discolored. I have tried removing the wax, but it still doesn't look bright. Have you any suggestions for bringing back the original color?

ANSWER: Some types of self-polishing wax leave a hard resin-like film on linoleum. In time, when enough thickness of wax accumulates, discoloration occurs. To remove this, it will be necessary to scrub the surface with a solution of a cupful of trisodium phosphate or washing soda in each gallon of warm water. Work in small sections and as the wax has been removed, rinse thoroughly with clear water. Number one steel wool can be substituted for the scrubbing brush. Do not allow the above solution to remain on the linoleum longer than necessary, because it may have a solvent action on the linseed oil in the linoleum.

COPPER ROOFING STAINS

QUESTION: Our bay window has a copper roof which stains the white woodwork below. How can this be prevented?

ANSWER: Wipe off all dust with turpentine and steel wool. Then finish with a couple of coats of a good grade of house paint. If the copper color is desired, finish with two coats of spar varnish, instead of paint.

PAINTING CEMENT BLOCKS

QUESTION: We recently moved into a house built of cement blocks. Is it possible to paint them?

ANSWER: Cement and cinder blocks can be painted satisfactorily with a damp proof cement-base paint or a rubber-base masonry paint. If the walls have been previously painted with an oil-base paint the cement-base paint cannot be used. Either of the above materials, when used on concrete or cinder block walls, will help prevent penetration of moisture.

CRAWN MARKS

QUESTION: How can I remove wax crayon marks from our concrete driveway?

ANSWER: Scrape off the thickest part of the marks with a knife blade and then cover the remainder of the discoloration with a paste made of powdered whiting and benzine or gasoline. Cover this with a piece of sheet metal of glass to prevent fast evaporation. Two or three treatments may be necessary for complete removal.

Describes Dilemma at Rate Hearing

By R. B. MacLURKIN

LONDON (Reuters)—A prominent British businessman, who also is a director of the Bank of England, told a tribunal Friday of what he described as his dilemma as a man torn between two duties.

Keswick testified in the fifth day of an inquiry by the government-appointed body into an alleged leakage of information about a two-per-cent increase in Britain's bank rate Sept. 19. The tribunal adjourned until Monday.

Should Promote Industry on Valley Basis

City planning and encouragement of more industry in this area should be done on a regional and valley basis and not by individual Okanagan cities according to Mrs. Elsie MacCleave, one of seven candidates for three aldermanic seats on Penticton city council.

In a pre-election statement released before she left the city for Civil Defence courses at Armstrong, Ont., Mrs. MacCleave outlined her platform.

To encourage establishment of industry, she said, Okanagan municipalities should hire jointly "a first class man and send him east to extol our advantages."

"Then we must set aside forever our small inter-city rivalries as to which city is chosen for what industry," she added.

Along with good planning is needed encouragement of all the arts "to lure the discriminating."

As for domestic water and sewerage problems, she declared: "I have never made specific promises and will not do so now except to say that I will work toward solutions of both."

Civil Defence Support Urged At Summerland

SUMMERLAND — A plea for support of Civil Defence was made by Civil Defence officer I. P. Phillips at the first in a series of fall and winter meetings to be held in the civil defence headquarters here this week.

Mr. Phillips told members of various organizations in attendance, "We in Civil Defence need your help urgently."

In giving a brief outline of the role the community would be expected to play in the event of a national emergency he said this district would be receiving approximately 12,000 evacuees for an undetermined period of time.

He stated the local area would have to provide traffic control, arrange to feed evacuees routed through the district to other centres and provide, on a 24-hour basis, a tow-truck equipped to make minor repairs where breakdowns may occur.

Those attending the meeting were Councilor B. Powell, representing the municipality, L. L. "Trip" from the Board of Trade, W. V. Borlin, Capt. A. M. Temple and Miss Bertha Bristow.

Air Force Officer To Address Ground

Flying Officer P. V. T. Ribbins of Vancouver will be guest speaker at a meeting of the local branch of the Ground Observers Corps Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Civil Defence building on Van Horne Street.

Miss Yvonne Smith, chief observer in Penticton said P/O Ribbins will speak on the value of the Ground Observers in regards to search and rescue in this area.

Some of the work done by these groups will be shown and the general public are invited to attend.

SUMMERLAND — A 25th birthday party was enjoyed by Summerland CCF members on Thursday evening at a social held at the home of Mrs. E. M. Hookham in Parkdale.

Card games were followed by refreshments and Bruce Woodsworth of Westbank, son of the founder, the late J. S. Woodsworth, spoke. Mrs. Woodsworth was among the guests.

Bitter, Nasty Remarks In Campaign Deplored

"Bitter and nasty" remarks against civic election candidates who had criticized proposals put forth at city council meetings, were strongly deplored last night by Ald. S. R. Hawkins at the stewardship meeting and civic election forum in the high school auditorium sponsored jointly by city council and the Penticton Ratepayers Association.

First to speak of the candidates vying for three aldermanic vacancies, Ald. Hawkins admitted that while on city council he had disagreed with various proposals.

CRITICISM NECESSARY
"But there was no ill will involved," he emphasized. "That was my job to disagree with anything that I believed was not proper. I could not honestly have done otherwise. City council is a parliamentary body and honest criticism is necessary of it to function as a free body."

"Bitter and nasty" remarks because of such criticism threaten freedom since they discourage good men from running for council and local government becomes a dictatorship, he pointed out.

"I stand on my record of sincere public service, honesty and decency," Ald. Hawkins concluded.

The remaining five of the six aldermanic nominees present, repeated, for the most part, the platforms they had outlined to a joint meeting of the Board of Trade and Jaycees Thursday night.

TAX REDUCTIONS
J. W. Johnson said he would work for progressive reduction of taxes to a minimum to encourage industry; lower power rates; no budgeting for large surpluses; and obtaining two percent loans for water and sewer projects.

Endorsing council's present water policy, Ald. A. C. Kendrick came out in favor of an equitable method of financing the domestic water extension to the Skaha Lake area; encouragement of more industry in the city; and assistance for establishment of a school for mentally retarded children.

Paul E. Pauls suggested that Penticton's water problem may be that there is too much water available. Whatever source of supply is decided on, residents should remember that those who decide are also taxpayers and water users. He also emphasized that the sewerage expansion plan proposed is a good plan which has been delayed through no fault of council. It would be dangerous for the plan to be delayed much longer, he said.

ALD. HARRIS LAUDED
W. A. Rathbun first noted that Ald. J. G. Harris, retiring from council this year after eight years of service, had "done a lot for this city and deserved recognition." This drew a wave of applause. Mr. Rathbun went on to recall that in his previous service as mayor of the city for four years, he had had a part in encouraging more equitable distribution of education costs between the provincial government and municipalities.

Final speaker among the aldermanic candidates, J. D. Southworth, declared that land reserved by the city for industrial development at cost prices, should not be sold unless there was a time limit for the purchaser to start building.

2 Mishaps on Icy, Treacherous Roads

"Icy conditions on the highways were responsible for two accidents in the Trout Creek area overnight, Penticton RCMP reported today.

Want More Parents

SUMMERLAND — Ways and means of interesting more parents in P-T-A work was among subjects discussed Thursday evening at the December Parent-Teacher Association meeting in the high school library. A telephone canvass may be organized.

Announcement was made that Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Bigsby will act as Teen-Town counsellors with support given by the local P-T-A. This follows a request made at the former meeting by Teen-Town representatives.

Mrs. V. Parker, president, introduced Mrs. J. B. Liebert and Mrs. Flora Bergstrom, teachers of Summerland School for Handicapped Children, who told of the work and aims of the school giving demonstrations of teaching methods and emphasizing the great value of the music in the school.

A vehicle driven by Herb Strain Jr. of the East Bench and a half-ton truck operated by Ralph Sykes of Vancouver both overturned causing a total of $500 damage. Neither driver was injured.

Mr. Strain's car slid on the icy surface, plunged into a ditch at the side of the road near Trout Creek bridge, and overturned. The other vehicle, filled with pipe fittings, overturned in the same area after hitting an icy spot on the highway and skidding to the side. Damage to the truck amounted to $400.

A spokesman for OK Valley Freight Lines Ltd. told the Herald today that the company's drivers had found highways coated with ice through to Hope. Roads were very bad from Kaleden to Princeton and from the Kaleden junction through to Trail.

Greyhound bus line officials here said all buses were running on time but highways were treacherous due to the icy conditions.

Church Building Fund Drive Well Over Goal

St. Ann's Building Fund campaign has gone well over the top of its $75,000 goal. It was announced last night at the rousing final meeting of the campaign committee workers.

J. J. Winkelaar, general chairman of the committee, announced that with some late returns still to come, a total of $76,833.50 had been received in cash donations and pledges over the next 20 months.

Mr. Winkelaar emphasized that his report did not signify the end of the campaign as there were a number of people still to be heard from and several others who had signified intention of campaign support but had not been able to fulfill their promise for various reasons.

125 CANVASSERS
The drive began last Sunday when a corps of over 125 men, all members of St. Ann's parish, began a house-to-house canvass of the parish.

Success of the drive means that plans for a new St. Ann's Church at 1295 Main Street, can proceed. Tentative scheduling calls for construction to begin next spring.

Rev. Francis J. Quinlan, O.M.I., pastor, expressed deep appreciation to the committee and to all parishioners for their sacrifice of time and money. The drive was a wonderful demonstration of Catholic Action, Father Quinlan said, and with such wonderful support St. Ann's new church building will undoubtedly be in use before the end of 1958.

MUCH TOO SMALL
The present church at 361 Wade Avenue, was built in 1914 with a seating capacity of only 180. It has become much too small for the growing parish.

The new church is tentatively planned to have a seating capacity of 600.

Record Use of Local Library Last Month

Library statistics for November show a healthy increase in circulation. Total number of books issued was 6,339 of which 3,738 were issued to children.

Both of these figures are a record for Penticton, and the librarian is making every effort to increase the number of books loaned, especially to children.

Seventy-three new adult registrations were recorded, and 67 children registered for the first time.

There has been a steady increase in registrations during the year due in large measure to the number of newcomers from cities where they were accustomed to use the library as a matter of course.

NEW FICTION
Among more than 200 new books arriving during the month, were the following in the adult department:

Rand, Arn, "Atlas Shrugged," a novel of tremendous scope, by the author of Fountainhead. This book presents an astounding panorama of human life, from the productive genius, who becomes a worthless playboy to the great steel industrialist who does not know he is working for his own destruction.

leisurely well-written book, and well worth reading.

Carton, Jacques, "La Belle Sorelle," the picture of a maiden of petty nobility, plausibly reared in an impoverished manor house, educated at a brilliant court, and falling in love with an ill-favored semi-invalid king. A fine picture of the French court, and a boon to those who like historical novels.

NON-FICTION
Hutchinson, Bruce, "Canada, Tomorrow's Giant," a long-awaited account of the author's re-discovery of Canada. From Newfoundland to British Columbia, Bruce Hutchinson reports the progress of our nation.

Baruch, "My Own Story," is also greatly in demand. It is the autobiography of a distinguished gentleman, and also an account of many problems which confronted him as chairman of the War Industries Board, and as a representative on the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission.

Terasaki, Gwen, "Bridge to the Sun," a very personal account of an American girl who married a Japanese diplomat in Washington. When war was declared against Japan, she and her husband were interned at White Springs, V.A., then sent to Japan, where she suffered illness and near starvation. The story is told with understanding and without rancor.

Gordon Beggs arranged an interesting program. A. J. Braun, taxidermist of Oliver, showed beautiful colored slides of scenery in the south Okanagan and wildflowers on Mt. Baker. Especially good were pictures taken in trophy rooms of Americans for who he had done work and on the farm of a Spanish nobleman in California.

Miss Marjorie Campbell sang with Miss Lynne Bothe accompanying and Ronnie Downes, violinist, was accompanied by Mrs. Delmar Dunham.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Wilson arranged a contest prizes for which were won by Mrs. E. E. Bates and H. R. McKee.

City's Debt Reduced To $128 Per Person

Penticton's per capita debt has been reduced by $10 during the past year from $138 to $128 per person.

This was disclosed at the civic stewardship meeting last night by Ald. P. F. Eraut in a report on the finance department.

Ald. Eraut noted there was a surplus of $38,000 this year out of which some of the pipe for the domestic water service extension to Skaha Lake area, has been purchased.

The irrigation department had total expenditure of $52,000 of which $42,900 was operating cost. 5 MILES NEW ROAD

Ald. J. G. Harris, reporting on the board of works department, said five miles of new road had been constructed in the past two years with 12 miles being sealed in the same period, and two miles of drainage mains installed.

Sidewalk construction totalled two and a half miles last year and 6,400 feet this year. The more than two miles of new curb and gutter, however, was a long way from catching up to requirements.

The department as a whole is working very efficiently, Ald. Harris reported. New equipment this year included a loader, back hoe and street sweeper with the fleet of trucks kept at top efficiency. Penticton Creek received a great deal of attention during the past year and although it isn't entirely safe yet, it's at the point now where any major flood water report by Ald. H. M. Geddes was assurance that the extension to the Skaha Lake area would be proceeded with as soon as engineering recommendations and detailed cost figures are available.

WITHIN BUDGET
All work in the department was done on schedule and within budget appropriation.

However Ald. Geddes said he would like to have seen more long-range planning.

The fire department and city pound were operating capably and efficiently, Ald. Geddes noted.

Health and social welfare progress highlight was opening of the new health centre, Ald. S. R. Hawkins reported.

Social assistance costs in the city total $85,000 this year of which the city pays $20,000.

Hope that a federal building and a private chronic-care hospital would be started in the city shortly was expressed by Ald. A. C. Kendrick in the land sales committee report.

Ald. P. F. McPherson, in the electrical department report, compared consumption of 1,700 kilowatts in October last year and 6,400 kilowatts in the same month this year, to show the continuing expansion in this department.

Conversion from 4,600 volts to 8,000 volts, begun in 1956, will be completed early in 1958 at an estimated cost of $60,000.

240 NEW CUSTOMERS
There were 240 new customers in the first 11 months of this year and 40 new street lights were installed.

In the traffic department, Ald. McPherson reported, 24 new parking meters have been installed and 50 more are coming to make a grand total of 300 meters in the city. Also, all applicants for bicycle licences will be referred to the traffic superintendent in future to ensure that safety requirements have been taken care of.

He (Jesus) came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name; which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.—John 1:11, 12, 13.

Replace Civic Chaos With Council Cohesion

Two years ago the annual civic stewardship meeting here was cancelled by a rather disgusted knot of council and school board members when, as it transpired, there were more of them on the platform than ratepayers assembled in the audience. It was one more exhibition of apathy in local politics.

To fight such apathy, typical of so many other civic elections in times past, this newspaper has more or less welcomed the entry of any candidate to the election lists, and has rarely if ever taken any side as between the individuals involved.

Because we felt any entrant was making a contribution by placing himself before the voters, we have always been reluctant to coax him into running, in one editorial, and then to belabor him by some criticism or other afterwards.

But we now have no hesitation in departing from this policy.

We have become utterly weary of the comic opera dramas of Mayor Oliver, his tempers and tantrums, his manufacturing of crises and confusions, his stunts and postures by which he obviously hopes to establish himself as a crusader. We think the city is humiliated by these goings-on.

That the mayor may have some points to argue about civic policy we would be the first to concede. While we were warring with His Worship several months ago, over his temperate suspension of high civic officials, we conceded this same thing while differing with him over his flamboyant technique.

The point we now want to stress is that it should be quite possible to achieve any and every goal that Mayor Oliver has in mind, with efficient speed and thoroughness, without all the disrupting bombast that has recently reduced the council chamber to the proportions of a vaudeville hall.

Maurice Finnerty, in our judgment, can be relied on to be just as forthright and purposeful as the current chief magistrate, and to get the necessary results while preserving the dignity of his office and the self-respect of the rest of his council.

The voters, we suggest, should replace chaos with cohesion in marking their ballots at the impending election.

Bicycles and Safety

Bicycles are predominantly vehicles of youth, and, as such, are controlled by rash, unthinking drivers, warns the Canadian Highway Safety Conference. Motorists who encounter these unpredictable, flitting two-wheelers must always be on their guard. The parents of youngsters who own bicycles have a grave responsibility to instill in their free-wheeling offspring the fact that no motorist wants to run down a cyclist, as well as the sense of responsibility required in the operator of such a vulnerable vehicle.

Motorists are puzzled, often angered, at the surly attitudes of bicycling children. The appearance of a bicycle on a street, usually sudden and unexpected, is enough to make any driver tense. Aware of the potential danger and the inevitable uncertainty of the cyclists' intentions, motorists will sound their horns to let the young menaces know that traffic is near. So often the bicyclist will take offence, snarl a nasty word or two at the driver as though the motorist had no right to event exist, least of all to foot a warning. "Don't be stupid," a cyclist says, "you tend to your driving and I'll tend to mine."

The sooner a cyclist comes to realize that he is driving a vehicle, a light, frail one at that, the greater the chance he stands of existence in this world of fast-growing traffic.

Mental Menus are Important

If we would be as critically observant of the things we take into our minds as we are of the things we take into our bodies, it is conceivable this generation would begin a phenomenal advance toward becoming better human beings and the "pursuit of happiness" would get a real boost.

We are all thankful for the progress that has been made in the preparation and handling of the things we eat. We insist on packaged foods, wrapped bread, certified milk. We wouldn't go back to ship-shod practice in food handling, wouldn't stand for it a minute. (Anyone remember when an empty pitcher or bucket was placed on the back step for receiving the morning milk, poured out from a large tin can on the wagon?) We demand the best, and clean.

Today, we're pretty sure of the wholesomeness of the family milk delivered regularly to our back doors. We give it to our children without hesitance. We take its purity for granted and expect good results.

Why shouldn't we be as thoughtfully interested about the cleanliness of the things that are delivered to our front doors and that otherwise enter our homes? Trashy magazines that thrive on useless sensationalism; newspapers that play on crime for crime's sake; exaggerated situations that are supposed to relax and entertain. They're continually crashing the family party without credentials and often without concern. You don't have to consider yourself a straight-laced prude or a kill-joy to challenge this intrusion.

Today's young people are keen, eager, alert. They are setting their hearts and minds on things and there are great intellectual and spiritual demands on them. Is the basis for right reasoning kept clear and open for them? There is truth for all of us in the old French proverb:

Be careful what you set your heart on for you will surely get it.

Vancouver to Lose its Booming Oil Business?

By MARTIN TAYLOR
Canadian Press Staff Writer

VANCOUVER (CP) — Vancouver's once-booming oil export business is in the doldrums and some pessimists suggest the flow may be reversed if present world conditions persist.

Oil men say there is a simple explanation for the recent sharp reduction in export shipments—a fall in tanker charter rates on the international shipping market is making it possible to sell Middle East crude in the United States cheaper than Canadian oil.

They point to a graph showing the day-to-day variations in rates quoted for tankers. It reflects closely the changing fortunes of the Canadian oil industry.

SWIFT CHANGE
Neither do the optimists see any reason for the present situation to continue. They say the ever growing market in the north west U.S. is bound to increase the demand for Canadian oil. They say unstable world conditions mean demand may increase again as swiftly as it fell.

President W. M. V. Ash of the Shell Oil Company of Canada recently asked the question: all oil men are asking on the most critical aspect of Canadian oil exports.

"What will happen to tanker rates? If I could answer that question, I wouldn't be here. One thing is certain — they will swing. The historic characteristic of tanker rates is that they have always fluctuated widely and quite rapidly."

For the time being, oil exporters are keeping their eyes on their graphs and hoping.

eventually will find what they want," he said.

The committee advertises itself through local and British newspapers, and through shipping companies.

"That way an incoming immigrant will know where to reach us when he gets here," Mrs. Latimer said.

As a rule, the committee does not handle non-British immigrants, she said, but "if anyone comes to us from another country we certainly do all we can to help."

If a new Canadian leaves Ottawa the committee notifies a similar organization, if there is one, in the city where he intends to settle.

The committee's temporary office has been set up in Mrs. Latimer's home, where its volunteer members meet once a month.

Mr. Otto, its secretary, who has been in Canada eight years, says the task is difficult except for women, who can be placed in office or domestic work without much delay.

"Men may have to take jobs beneath their skills at first, but they will find what they want," he said.

OTTAWA REPORT

Fish Skinner; Election Winner

By PATRICK NICHOLSON

OTTAWA—Fisherman William Anderson won $25 as second prize for skinning a fish at Toronto's Canadian National Exhibition. It is typical of Good Citizen William Anderson that the contestant who beat him for first prize was an amateur whom he coached as the competition proceeded—a lassie newly immigrated from Scotland.

"Bill" Anderson knows that, like fish, cats can also be skinned in more than one way, according to the old saying. So he has found more than one way to serve his native community, where he has lived, worked and raised a family.

For Bill has the double honor of being "His Honor the Mayor of Galt" and also "the Honorable Member (Progressive Conservative) of the House of Commons for Waterloo South." His federal constituency includes Galt and surrounding communities such as Ilespeler and Preston.

Bill Anderson is a young-looking 52-year-old, but already he is an old hand at winning political office. He was first elected to the Galt council in 1938. By popular demand for his able services, he has remained in office almost continuously, first as councillor and later as mayor. In those 19 years, he has received no less than seven acclamations. He has been mayor for the past four years; and if anyone ever had mayoralty thrust upon him, it was Bill Anderson, for he was asked to run, and on each occasion received an acclamation.

FROM HALL TO HOUSE
For Bill, the road to Parliament Hill was harder, but only a trifle so, than the road to city hall. He received no acclamation, and had three rivals. But he was elected at his first attempt by the substantial margin of 1,700 votes over the sitting Liberal member, Art White.

Two candidates forfeited their deposits of $200 by obtaining less than half the votes accorded to winner Anderson. Art White incidentally preceded Bill Anderson not only as M.P. but also as mayor, having filled that office in Galt for three years.

One man cannot adequately serve his community in the two roles of M.P. and mayor, Bill declared. So he did not permit his name to be put forward for a fifth term as mayor, and as from New Year's Day he will cease to hold that office.

In this his first session in Parliament, the new M.P. for Waterloo South is taking careful stock, listening and learning and regularly present long hours at his seat in the Chamber.

The subjects which interest him especially, on behalf of his supporters, are general welfare measures and the special business interests around Galt.

WELFARE WELCOMED

Prime Minister Diefenbaker's improvements in the old age pension, the unemployment benefits, and other allowances, and the vigorous steps to provide more jobs, are all things which, he tells me, he applauds wholeheartedly. Any projects to enlarge markets, either at home or overseas, for Canada's manufacturers will also receive his full support. For Galt and district is a miniature replica of Ontario's throbbing industrial heartland. It contains no less than 660 different businesses, large and small, engaged in 146 diversified industries. Prominent among these of course are the textile mills.

One of Bill Anderson's most significant achievements as mayor has been his work on behalf of retarded children. Honoring this interest, Canada's first school specially built for these little sufferers was appropriately named the William Anderson school; and its 30 students were recently visited by His Excellency the Governor General.

What are Rookie Anderson's impressions of our Federal Parliament? Chiefly surprise.

"It is so different from what I have been used to in council at Galt," he told me. "It amazes me how some members behave, and how the authority of the Speaker and the dignity of the rules are ignored. If we acted like that in council, I am sure we would all be thrown out by the voters."

Head of Scouts as Spry as His Name

By JACK VAN DUSEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP) — May-Gen. D. C. Spry lives up to his name — active and lively.

The tall, thin former soldier is head of the Boy Scouts International Bureau, travelling 50,000 miles a year promoting the movement in 67 countries.

Now in process of moving the bureau headquarters to Ottawa from London, England, Gen. Spry in an interview compared the boy scout movement to the United Nations.

He described himself as the secretary-general of a 67-nation "UN" who helps keep the movement rolling around the world.

COMMUNIST BAN
It had hit a snag in communist countries. "Scouting is banned the moment the iron curtain falls," said the 44-year-old scouting official. "Some leaders have been shot and others banished to Siberia because of their activities."

Gen. Spry said the bureau headquarters is being moved here because Ottawa is centrally located and because it will be in "a neutral and independent nation."

The bureau co-ordinates the activities of the world's 7,500,000 boy scouts. Gen. Spry and other bureau members — he calls them "the stateless people of the scouting world" — wear distinctive grey uniforms to emphasize their neutrality.

His travel plans this year included Jamaica, Japan, Korea, Formosa, Tunisia, the Philippines, Sweden, Greece and Italy.

He was appointed director of the boy scouts international bureau in 1953.

He figures that in the four years he worked out of London as head of the bureau, two were spent travelling. "I just kept my suitcase there," the cigarette-smoking general said with a chuckle.

His travel plans this year included Jamaica, Japan, Korea, Formosa, Tunisia, the Philippines, Sweden, Greece and Italy.

BIBLE THOUGHT

Great indeed is the mystery of our religion. I Timothy 3:16.

Yet Christ and Paul reduced it to one sentence, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Only a man's mind could condense religion into one sentence, but it is a hard saying and how many have attained self mastery from selflessness?

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PENTICTON BOARD OF TRADE

Dear Mr. Lang:—Was it studied insult or plain ignorance which, on an occasion such as the Board of Trade was celebrating tonight, placed the Mayor of the city at almost the extreme end of the table to the left of the chairman and the guest of honor? This was an insult not only to the office itself, but to the many citizens who gave Mr. Oliver an overwhelming majority to fill that office.

Also left out was Mr. J. W.

Johnson who was one of those, along with Mr. Oliver as Reeve, who was responsible in the first place for Canadian Pacific Airlines being enabled to make Penticton one of their landing places. It had to be brought to the attention of the meeting by a stranger that these longtime residents had honor coming to them!

Yours truly,

"All right," said the Russian delegate, "let's compromise. Put down that there are two railroads."

THRIFT SHOP SPONSORED BY IODE

A thriving and unique retail business recently established here for the purpose of raising funds in support of many commitments to an extensive educational and welfare program is located in a small bright store room at 32 Westminister Avenue East. This novel shopping centre, staffed by volunteer saleswomen, is the "Thrift Shop" sponsored by the Diamond Jubilee Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. The thrift centre was first proposed last spring when the chapter recognized the need for a new approach to securing funds for its various obligations and welfare activities. It was in August that a committee, which had been set up several weeks earlier, officially opened the shop to the public. The project has been an outstanding financial success and has made it possible for the IODE to be very generous with several recent donations, foremost among these being the cheque for $500 donated to Pentiction's centennial pavilion project. The "Thrift Shop" carries a wide and varied selection of used clothing and household articles and is open to the public five days a week from Tuesday to Saturday inclusive. Morning shopping hours are 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and afternoon hours are 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Members and friends of the chapter keep the shelves well stocked with merchandise at all times. Pictured above are three of the four members of the shop committee as they are busily engaged in arranging and pricing the many donated articles prior to placing them in stock. Mrs. E. G. Plan to Save Energy For Fun That's Ahead

By ELEANOR ROSS You wouldn't dream of letting Santa—or any other important guest—discover a messy house at Christmas. But it's foolish to think you can get everything done the night before or even the week before the holiday without wearing yourself to a frazzle.

PLAN IN ADVANCE Try planning household cleaning chores a few weeks in advance, so that you'll have enough energy left at Christmas to join in the festivities. About three weeks before Christmas, stock up on all the extra cleaning supplies you'll need—soaps, detergents, scouring powders, brushes, sponges, cloths. Remember that, with a constant flow of guests during the holidays, you'll be perpetually serving—and washing. So see to it that all dish-washing equipment is in good order and plentiful supply.

About two weeks before deadline, tend to your furniture. Wipe all surfaces with a sudsy sponge, rinse and then wax and polish to a high gloss. Take special care with the dining room table top. Don't forget those extra expansion leaves that have been stored away. Having house guests for the holiday? Greet them with rooms that have been newly made up with freshly washed, fragrant linens, bedspreads and cotton scatter rugs. Even though these may have been laundered after the departure of the last guest, they'll look brighter if they have been washed again. Check the guest room thoroughly. See to it that there are new bulbs in the lamps, plenty of hangers in the closet and a few current magazines within easy reach. Small containers of cosmetics, plenty of pins, a nicely stocked little sewing kit—all these make for true hospitality.

TABLE ACCESSORIES The week before deadline, wash your precious china and crystal in hot suds. Silver flatware and table accessories that are not often used should be polished and then washed in hot suds and rinsed. Also, that large damask cloth a quick sudsing when you take them out of storage. Finally, wash the windows and the mirrors, too. And now the house is as bright as a Christmas tree—and there are still a few days left to rest and relax before the busy round of activities is upon you.

Reports, Elections and Festive Tea Highlight December W.I. Meeting

A full agenda greeted members of the Pentiction Women's Institute at their December and Christmas party meeting held in the Health Centre with Mrs. Guy Brock in the chair.

Annual reports and current business held the centre of interest prior to the presentation of a 1958 slate by the nominating committee when all officers were returned to serve for the ensuing term.

The 1958 officers are Mrs. Guy Brock, president; Mrs. Harry Edwards, vice-president; Mrs. Z. N. Spears, secretary; Mrs. N. G. Kincaid, treasurer; Mrs. J. A. Rodell, board member, and Mrs. Janet Anderson, social convener. Mrs. John Bowen-Colthurst will be in charge of publicity for the new term.

In the monthly provincial letter read by Mrs. Brock, the members were reminded by Mrs. E. J. Roylance, president, that $1,200 is still required to furnish the word in the children's hospital at Victoria. A sum of $1,100 has now been contributed by various institutes to this project, and the local members voted to send a donation of ten dollars to the fund.

Mrs. J. A. Rodell reported that nine girls' dresses made by the WI members were on display and these would be forwarded as gifts to the small patients in B.C.'s Children's Hospital at Vancouver. It was decided to endorse a resolution which will be sent to the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa concerning the inhuman methods of slaughtering animals for human consumption.

The Central Welfare Committee of this city appealed for more interested participation, with an invitation for a large delegation at its annual meeting in January. Mrs. C. C. Macdonald invited all those interested in making layettes for distribution through Dr. Lotta Hiltzmanova's Unitarian Service Committee to attend the sewing meeting arranged for January 3 at 2 p.m. in the Health Centre. Mrs. Macdonald said that 25,000 layettes are urgently required for the relief services of the U.S.C.

Annual reports indicate a very active year for the WI with many contributions being made to worthy causes including the Student Loan Fund, Save the Children, the children's hospital and others.

Mrs. Rodell summarized activities of the citizenship committee during the past 12 months. Among the several interesting programs arranged during the year by this committee was the tea in May when women of different countries served refreshments stressing foods of their native lands. Mrs. Rodell reported that she had made many visits to new Canadians and residents in Pentiction and recommended that a special committee be set up for this purpose.

Mrs. A. N. Smith of Gretna, Manitoba, who is en route to spend the winter in Vancouver with her family, was welcomed as a guest at the meeting. The first meeting of the new year has been arranged for January 8 in the Health Centre. Mrs. W. Johnson and Mrs. W. H. Snelson were hostesses when a delicious tea was served following adjournment. The table was beautifully decorated in a Christmas theme and tea was poured by Mrs. A. T. West, Mrs. E. S. Bearcroft and Mrs. Rodell. The tea collection was donated to the current March of Dimes campaign.

Fur fashions start at the top this season and the woman who faces winter without a fur hat is going to feel definitely underprivileged. This may be construed as a break for husbands and fathers who foot the bills, because the ladies probably are going to be satisfied to ask for a fur hat instead of a fur coat this year. Plain cloth coats and winter suits with fur added in small doses in the form of accessories are going to be seen in many fashionable spots, come fall. They look new, exciting and flattering.

Fur hats come in all shapes, sizes and pelts in the fall collection of Sally Victor, but the favorites of this designer are caps in infinite variety. She shows African caps with pointed backs, worn far back on the head in the manner of belles of the African Gold Coast, with white broadtail and dark mink the favored makings.

Sometimes the caps grow to kinize berets, dramatic in leopard with giant handbags to match. These may be worn in any number of ways, to suit the taste and type of the wearer. Among the furs that will be seen on fashionable heads this fall are: Silver fox, red fox, leopard, ermine, cheetah, broadtail and all mutations of mink.

VOLUNTEERS ARE BUSILY ENGAGED AT SHOP

Replenishing shelves with books and other small items and arranging the wide selection of clothing on long racks keep the committee and other volunteer workers fully occupied when not serving customers. Committee member Mrs. H. M. Logan and Mrs. Chatfield are admiring a piece of glassware just unpacked from one of the several boxes of donated articles delivered daily to the "Thrift Shop." Approximately 30 IODE members assist as volunteers at the shop and Mrs. A. J. Burnside, although not a committee member, serves as treasurer for the shop. The workers are taking a holiday for the festive season and the shop will be closed to business from December 21 to January 3.

Mother Knits for Korean Children

A South Porcupine, Ontario, woman just cannot get enough knitting to keep her busy. After clothing her own family, her needles are now clicking on sweaters for Korean children, as part of the Unitarian Service Committee's "Pullover Parade."

The USC, 78 Sparks Street, Ottawa, has pledged 25,000 pull-overs for Korean youngsters and as this volunteer put it: "This is one place where I could help as I caught up with all the small fry in the family last spring."

Save yourself time by hanging sheets and towels straight when you put them on the clothesline. You can often get by with little or no ironing that way.

KAMLOOPS GOALTENDER Jim Shirley makes an abortive lunge for the puck as Clare Wakshinski fires the first of his two goals. Despite a hustling display by the Vees, Kamloops, backed by the brilliant goaltending of Shirley, took a 6-3 win. Play was fast for two periods and then lagged considerably in the final frame when the Chiefs pumped home a pair of unanswered tallies. The loss dropped the Vees six points behind third-place Vernon Canadians who defeated Kelowna 5-3 last night.

JIM SHIRLEY displays the phenomenal form that enabled him to kick out shot after shot, as the Vees stormed around the Kamloops net in an effort to make Bernie Bathgate's debut as playing coach a winning effort. With a player parked on his doorstep, the Kamloops netminder kicked out this shot and then was tested on the rebound. Vees will travel to Kamloops tonight for the second game of the weekend series while in other league action Kelowna is at Vernon.

Vees Sink Deeper In League Cellar

Jim Shirley In Fine Form As Kamloops Triumphs 6-3

Penticton hockey fans, who have been on a diet of disappointment for most of the season, were served the usual bill of fare last night.

Kenny MacKenzie's Kamloops Chiefs fired two unanswered goals in the third period to break up a close game and give the northern club a 6-3 win over the Vees.

Close to 1,500 fans watched as the Vees, playing their first game under Bernie Bathgate, made it close for two periods and then faded in the finale.

Bill Hryciuk paced the Chiefs with a pair of goals. Singles were scored by Fred Sasakamoose, Bobby Dawes, Johnny Millard and Gerry Prince.

Vees marksmen were Clare Wakshinski, with two, and Walt Peacock.

The win gave the Chiefs a first-place tie with the Kelowna Packers, who dropped a 5-3 decision to the Vernon Canadians Friday night in Kelowna.

Vees, as a result of the loss, were shoved deeper into the Okanagan Senior Hockey League cellar. They now trail the third-place Canadians by six points.

Vees took an early lead at 2:01 when Clare Wakshinski intercepted a clearing pass at the Kamloops blueline and skated in unmolested to beat Jim Shirley with a low slap shot.

Hryciuk squared the count at 1-1 at 8:34, taking a pass behind the Vees' defence and romping in to beat Don Moog, pinch-hitting for George Wood, with a waist-high drive from directly in front of the net.

Slightly more than a minute later, Wakshinski put the Vees out in front again with his second goal of the game. Al Lloyd took a forward pass from Jack Taggart and, on the two-man break, pulled the lone defenceman on one side before sliding a perfect setup to Wakshinski. The hard-working centre skated right in on Shirley and triggered a high shot past the Kamloops netminder.

SASAKAMOOS REPLIES

Defenceman Fred Sasakamoose replied for the Chiefs at 14:30, beating Moog with a screened shot from the blueline with Kev Conway serving a two-minute hooking sentence.

Kamloops defenceman McDougall was banished for tripping at 15:17 but the Vees were able to manage only a single shot on Shirley.

Playing coach Bobby Dawes gave Kamloops the lead for the first time in the game at 2:06 of the second period when he drilled a screen shot from the blueline past Moog.

Bill Warwick and McDougall took successive penalties following Dawes' goal and the Vees power play showed promise. But Jim Shirley, sometimes brilliant and sometimes lucky, had the Vees banging their sticks on the ice in frustration.

Finally, McDougall doing penance, Bathgate slid a pass out onto Walt Peacock's stick and the left winger slammed the puck into the net to tie the game for the third time.

WINNING GOAL

With only 71 seconds remaining in the second period, Millard took a passout from Hryciuk and beat Moog with an angle shot. It proved to be the winning goal.

Johnny Utendale had a golden chance to put the Vees back on even terms in the opening seconds of the final frame when he broke away at centre ice and sailed right in on Shirley. The Kamloops goaltender came up with the big save and from then on the Vees seemed to falter.

Hineberger went off for tripping at 2:54 and the man advantage proved disastrous for the Vees. Leopold stole the puck and laid a pass over to Prince who fired the Chiefs' fifth goal.

Hryciuk finished off a three-way passing play with Millard and Evans for the final score of the game at 7:05.

The smooth trio caught the Vees with only one defenceman back and Hryciuk was all alone when he took the payoff pass in front of Moog.

Penticton had a 20 to 26 edge in shots and came up with the more dangerous scoring thrusts but were unable to beat Shirley's netminding.

TARALA RESIGNS AS COACH; BERNIE BATHGATE NAMED

Hal Tarala resigned Friday as playing coach of the Penticton Vees hockey club.

Veteran Bernie Bathgate was named by the hockey club executive as the new playing coach.

In announcing his resignation, Tarala said: "I think it will be in the interest of hockey in Penticton for me to resign as coach."

Tarala, who was in his second year as playing coach of the Vees, will remain with the club as a player.

Agar's Canucks Get 5-3 Victory

KELOWNA (CP) — Kelowna Packers' found George Agar's Vernon Canadians too tough a morsel to swallow Friday night, as the former Allan Cup champs hustled their way to a 5-3 victory in Okanagan Senior Hockey League play.

Agar, Odie Lowe, Sherm Blair, Jim Moro and Don McLeod picked up the Vernon markers in the clean, fast game.

The Kaiser-Roche, Middleton line was the Packers' big gun, with Joe Kaiser picking up one and Jim Middleton two.

Kaiser opened the scoring after three minutes of play. Defenceman Pat Coburn had carried the puck down the right side, wheeled in on the net and shot, then picked up his own rebound and handed it to Kaiser on the open corner.

The Canucks turned on the heat then and Moro passed a neat one out to Agar on the boards at the 6:26 mark, and the old pro handed it over to Blair in front.

Lowe put the Canucks ahead two minutes later when he took Johnny Harms' pass-out in front after the fiery forward had carried it right down and set Lowe up.

Moro broke in on a solo flight and hammered one in just as the period ended.

Middleton gave the Packers a chance when he scored the only goal of the second frame.

In the third period, McLeod let go a whistling slap-shot from the blue line that caught Gatherrum by surprise, and four minutes later Bidolski ground one in from a scramble.

Habs' Netminder Noted For Eccentric Behavior

By Canadian Press

National Hockey League netminders, like major-league baseball pitchers, are noted for their eccentric behavior, but even in this wacky group Montreal Canadiens' Jacques Plante stands out. The slim sharp faced goaltender's daily round during the season is:

Twelve to 15 hours sleep daily, a special set of exercises none of the rest of team follows, four to five hearty meals, a precisely measured half tablet before game time.

In addition, when Canadiens are playing in Toronto Plante goes off to a different hotel than the rest of the team and beds down in solitary splendour.

He knitted toques for himself and, in the minor leagues, used to wear one while playing. Coach Toe Blake figures this was not for the NHL and discouraged the knitting.

Chances are Blake really does not care how Plante behaves as long as he keeps up the play that won him the Vezina Trophy as the league's least-scored-on netminder during the last two seasons.

Plante's former pastime of knitting has dropped off since the Shawinigan Falls, Que., native began tending goals regularly for Canadiens during the 1954-55 season.

PAMPERS HIS HEALTH

All these habits are the result of Plante's delicate physical condition.

The sleep and the heavy intake of calories are to counter his tendency to lose weight during the season, a lot of weight. Last season the six footer reported for duty weighing 172. By season's end he was a skinny 149. This year he's trying desperately to get up to 175 pounds and is about eight pounds short of the mark. The special exercises, the medication and the separate sleeping quarters are all designed to ward off Plante's asthma.

The exercises, he says, are to loosen up his chest muscles and make him breathe easier. But he gets sleepy from so much exercise and must take half tablets to wake him up.

Plante explains he used to suffer

Bill Rose Tops Tennis Ranks

SEATTLE (AP)—Bill Rose of Portland has been ranked No. 1 in men's single tennis for the Pacific Northwest in 1957 and Janet Hopps of Seattle got the top spot in women's singles.

The annual ratings, announced today by the Pacific Northwest Lawn Tennis Association, placed Sam Lee and Emory Neale of Portland first in men's doubles. Four of the area's outstanding players were not ranked due to insufficient data. This is regular procedure when players make infrequent or no appearances in regional tournaments. The four were Bill Quillian of Seattle, Paul Willey of Vancouver, B.C., Doris Popple of Portland and Jane Brisk of Tacoma.

Jack Lowe of Seattle was ranked second and John Swan, Vancouver, B.C., third in men's singles. Amy Yee of Seattle was second and Susan Butt of Victoria third in the women's division.

Other rankings included: Junior veterans' doubles — 1. Clair Irish and Dorek Leader, Vancouver, B.C.; 5. Earl and Darrell Cusick, Wenatchee, Wash. Boys' singles — 1. Dave Moffett, Seattle; 2. Arne Ahlen, Vancouver, B.C.; 3. Dan Gomer, Tacoma; 4. Tim Cummins, Vancouver, B.C.; 5. Ray Miller, Spokane; 14. Dean Parsons, Wenatchee.

The Selects won five games and tied another during the tour, first by a Russian team. The Selects are expected to contribute several members to the Russian team in the world championships in Oslo, Feb. 27-March 8. But one of the Muscovites' losses on the tour, which ended Friday night, was a 7-2 setback by Whitty Dunlops who are to represent Canada at the championships.

The Selects defeated Ottawa-Hull Junior Canadiens 10-1 Friday night in the highest scoring and highest penalty game of the tour. Nineteen penalties were handed out, 11 to Selects.

During the tour the Selects lost to Whitty Dunlops and defeated the Junior Canadiens twice and Kingston, North Bay and Sudbury once each.

A solitary figure stood between the Vees and victory last night.

Jim Shirley, a goaltender noted for his chronic lack of generosity when it comes to giving up goals, ruined Bernie Bathgate's debut as playing coach of the Vees almost single-handed.

For the Vees, this was one of their finer nights. That is, until the last period it was. Once again, after being robbed blind on so many fine scoring chances, the Vees folded in the third period.

But until the final frame, they were a better team than the Chiefs. And they might have been better in the third if they could have denied Shirley's armour a little more often.

Hal Tarala, with the burdens of coaching no longer on his shoulders, turned in his best game of the season. He was throwing his weight around in fine fashion and seemed to be enjoying the game for the first time this year.

For the first time this year, too, the Vees power play showed promise of having a little power, although the first time they had the man advantage the Vees were able to get only one shot on the Kamloops goal. Biggest detriment to the power play was the defencemen carrying the puck up the ice instead of letting the forwards come back for it.

Clare Wakshinski, who is always digging, was rewarded with a pair of pretty goals in the first period. One was a fine solo effort, where his strong fore-checking gave him a clear run at the Kamloops goal. Al Lloyd fed him a perfect pass for the other.

Vees continue to have trouble getting the puck out of their own end. One of last night's goals was scored against the Vees when they had the man advantage but had the puck stolen in their own end.

On two other occasions poor clearing resulted in screened blue-line shots eluding Don Moog in the Vees net.

Moog, who was pinch-hitting for George Wood, turned in a solid game, considering the lack of practice he has had. Wood, however, might have made the difference.

George Wood was out of action because he had several teeth removed and the side of his face was sore and swollen.

One consolation for the Vees' tough luck around the net is the fact that when they do start getting the breaks the goals should come in great numbers. On last night's play they could have had seven instead of three goals.

McLeod, Maloney On Scoring Spree

IN MUD

East Whips West in Shrine Game

By W.R. WHEATLEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL (CP)—The East drowned the West today 20-2 in a mudbath on a field of water and slime in the third of the annual East-West all-star Shrine football game.

The West seldom threatened in the game played under the most miserable weather conditions.

A crowd of about 6,000 or so braved drizzle and mud to watch the muddy spectacle.

SPARKED BY TIGERS

The Hamilton Tiger-Cats' slick backfielders, Gerry McDougall, with two touchdowns, and Cookie Gilchrist, with one, carried the East to their first victory in this post-season series. The first in Toronto was a 6-6 tie and the last year's at Vancouver was a 35-0 shellacking of the East by the West.

Cam Fraser of the Tiger-Cats kicked a single and Bill Bewley of Montreal Alouettes made good on his one convert attempt. The two others were missed by the Cats Steve Oneschuk.

Vic Chapman of the British Columbia Lions kicked two singles for the West, one in each of the last two quarters after the East had taken a 20-0 lead.

NO SOLID FOOTING

Despite the weather and field conditions both teams made a great show of the game and battled it out all the way.

The field had pools of water all over it, from rain Friday night and early today. Frost coming from the ground added to the sloppy going. From goalkick to goalkick there wasn't an inch of solid footing.

Players slithered about in the slime sometimes spinning about like tops and the game was only a few minutes old before it was almost impossible to pick out the players.

Heavy low clouds and a mist all but blanketed the stadium. LIGHTS TURNED ON

A drizzle and at times a light rain fell throughout. The stadium lights, which are not standard compared with other stadia, were turned on at half time.

The East scored their three touchdowns in each of the first three quarters and were held scoreless in the last quarter. The touchdowns came on drives of 55, 45 and 44 yards.

Despite the mud and slippery ball, there was a fair amount of pass attempts.

Pat Abbruzzi of the Alouettes for the East and Bob Marlow of Saskatchewan for the West proved the best mudders in juggling the ball. Abbruzzi on one sprint in the second quarter churned through the slop for 42 yards for the game's longest run.

The slop marked the third time mud dominated the event. Both the opener at Toronto and the second at Vancouver were wet affairs.

GAIN 18 YARDS PASSING Etcheverry completed 12 of 19 pass attempts for 185 yards and had one pass intercepted. Frank Tripucka of Saskatchewan completed six of 22 for 95 yards. Three of his passes were intercepted. None of the interceptions led directly to scoring.

The first muddy march by the East started after about 10 minutes of the opening quarter after Bob Simpson of Ottawa had run back a kick five yards to the centre stripe.

Gilchrist and McDougall carried to the West 44 and Abbruzzi took a short pass from Etcheverry and went to the 25. From there on first down McDougall burst through the middle for his first touchdown. Fraser kicked his single before the quarter ended.

Abbruzzi's long run in the second quarter was nullified by a fumble and the East started the next drive from their 45.

McDougall and Abbruzzi got to the 15 on passes and Gilchrist went the rest of the way, sliding over in a spray of water. The East had a 13-0 lead at half-time.

A third-down gamble by the West on their 44 backfired and led to the East's final touchdown. Gary Schreiber of Ottawa Rough Riders and Bobby Kuntz of Toronto Argos carried to the 2 and McDougall took a 14-yard pass from Etcheverry for his second touchdown.

Canuck Forwards Set Record As Royals Humiliated, 11-3

By The Canadian Press

A pair of former National Hockey League performers now with the western hockey league Vancouver Canucks had reporters scurrying for the record books Friday as Canucks swamped New Westminster Royals 11-3 in Vancouver.

Phil Maloney, who saw service with Boston Bruins and Toronto Maple Leafs, and ex-New York Ranger Jackie McLeod each scored eight points in the rout.

McLeod's four goals and four assists and Maloney's two-six combination broke by one the old WHL record of seven points in a game.

George Agar of Calgary counted four goals and three assists in 1952 and the mark was matched by Vancouver's Ray Cyr in 1956.

Maloney's six helpers is also a record. The previous mark of five was scored by New Westminster's Dutch Evers in 1950 and since equalled by 10 players.

Vancouver's win pushed it into first place in the league's coast division, one point ahead of the Royals.

In the night's other action the Prairie division's last-place Calgary Stampede upset second-place Edmonton 5-4. The Stamps are one point behind third-place Saskatoon-St. Paul Regals.

Back on the coast it was two goals by McLeod in the final minute of play that rewrote the record book. On each Maloney was at his elbow.

In all, the Maloney-centred line of McLeod and rookie Bob Robinson picked up 19 scoring points. Robinson, a 20-year-old left-winger from Guelph, Baltimore, scored once and clicked for two assists.

Ron Hutchinson, Bill Folk, Brent MacNab and Orland Kurtenbach rounded out the Canuck goal-getting. Veteran Ollie Dorohoy, Pat Hannigan and Art Jones answered for the Royals.

HARRIS MISSES

Maple Leafs' Billy Harris finds Montreal goalie Jacques Plante, rear, away out of the net, but the Toronto forward just missed scoring as the puck bounced wide of the net. Plante had several narrow escapes as league-leading Montreal Canadiens, minus the Richards, and Leafs battled to a scoreless tie in Toronto. The upcoming Leafs thus moved within a point of third-place Boston and boosted their unbeaten string to five games.

LOPES GOES DOWN

Joey Lopes sinks to the canvas for the first of three knock-downs inflicted by lightweight champion Joe Brown, who preserved his title with a TKO in the 11th round of their scheduled 15-rounder in Chicago. Lopes, who held Brown to a draw last August, gave the champ plenty of trouble until the sixth round. After taking a four-count in the seventh, Lopes again went down in the 11th round for two short counts before the referee halted the bout. Brown now plans to take on Ralph Dupas of New Orleans, whom he regards as tougher than the higher-ranked Kenny Lane.

American Tennis Holdouts Blasted

ADLELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Gardnar Mulloy, senior member of the U.S. Davis Cup team, Friday unleashed a bitter blast at America's tennis holdouts, Ham Richardson, Dick Savitt and Budge Patty.

The Americans defeated the Philippines and moved on to the next inter-zone match against Belgium.

American captain Bill Talbert was encouraged by the team's showing. "This is a big boost for us. It does not mean we do not have more progress to make, but it shows we are making it," he said.

But Mulloy, 44-year-old Miami, Fla., veteran, angrily criticized the stay-at-homes.

"But it is ridiculous that we must go into these tests with a patched up team of veterans and youngsters while three players who could win the cup for us are staying at home."

Richardson, Savitt and Patty all were named on the original Davis Cup squad but declined to represent their country for various reasons.

ONLY CANADIAN to win an invitation to the world's championship invitation match game bowling tournament in Chicago Dec. 4-13 is Gabe Bihary, above, of Hamilton. Winner of this year's Canadian Masters, Bihary will be rolling for a share of the $30,200 pot. Winner gets $5,000.

Hungarian, Swede Lead Chess Tourney

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Bent Larsen of Denmark and Laszlo Szabo of Hungary remained in a tie Friday night for first place in the Dallas international chess tournament. Each had four points.

The sixth round of play in the 14-round tourney was completed during the day and the international chess masters took the evening off.

In second place was Samuel Reshevsky of the United States with 3½ points.

Tied for third were Fridrik Olafsson of Iceland and Abe Yanofsky, Winnipeg lawyer representing Canada, with three points each. Svetozar Gligoric of Yugoslavia, with 2½ points, was fourth.

Trailing were Larry Evans of the United States and N. Najdorf of Argentina, with two points each.

Blue Bombers Seeking All-American

WINNIPEG (CP)—If all-American tackle Alex Karras of Iowa plays football in Canada next year, it will be with Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

Bomber manager Bill Bolvin today said he had Karras' signature on a Canadian Rugby Union card, which gives Winnipeg exclusive rights to his services should he play in Canada.

Bombers competition for Karras' services will come from Detroit Lions of the National Football League, who named him their No. 1 choice.

THE DEATH TOLL

In Canada, traffic was the No. 3 killer, exceeded only by cancer and heart disease.

Traffic was the GREATEST SINGLE KILLER of Canadians between the ages of three and 40. In the school-age group, traffic was an ominous death-dealer.

More industrial workers were killed in traffic than on their jobs.

Opening lead - king of diamonds.

One of the important principles of card play, whether as defender or declarer, is demonstrated in today's hand.

North decided to risk the four heart contract even though South's heart response was made under the compulsion of the information double and guaranteed no values.

West opened the king of diamonds and when it held, had to decide what to do next. Rather than lead away from the king of spades, he shifted to the ten of hearts which declarer won in dummy. Another round of trumps was taken, the ace and king of spades were lost, and the contract was made.

It turned out upon analysis that a low spade play at trick two would have defeated the hand, since East could win with the ace, return a spade, and get a ruff. West contended he could not fairly be expected to choose this defense, since declarer might have had the spade ace and West would be giving South a free finesse.

West was wrong. His contention was correct as far as it went, but it did not go far enough. South might have had the ace of spades it is true, and if this was the case a spade lead might even cost a trick, but the important point is that it could not cost the contract.

West's correct view as a defender, seeing only his own hand and dummy's, is to assume some reasonable hand his partner may have that will permit defeat of the contract. To assume declarer has the ace of spades is to give up without a struggle. If declarer does have the spade ace, he is sure to make the hand whether West leads a spade or not.

The only real hope of breaking the contract is to play East for a spade. Moreover, this is not at all a farfetched assumption, since South was forced to bid any may be aceless.

Any defense other than a low spade at trick two is a concession of defeat.

What was the most dramatic bridge match of this century? Bridge fans and experts alike agree it was the exciting Lenz-Culbertson match of 1921-22. The bridge titans of the day, played in a spotlight of national publicity unmatched before or since, set the styles in bridge bidding and play for the next twenty years.

You won't want to miss B. Jay Becker's re-creation and analysis of the most famous hands of the Lenz-Culbertson "Match of the Century" in his daily column, Contract Bridge, starting December 9 in the Penticton Herald.

Satellite Toys In Santa's Pack
Santa, being on old space pilot himself, is all set to conquer interplanetary flight by Christmas.

This 1957 pack already was well stocked with electronic guided missiles and rocket launchers when Sputnik invaded the sky, touching off a new rush of satellite-inspired playthings which are pouring off assembly lines of Toyland to keep junior space men up to date.

Hold up UN Force Cashier
GAZA, Egypt (AP) - Three armed civilians held up a UN Emergency Force cashier Friday and robbed him of $700.

A UN spokesman said the robbery occurred six miles of Gaza town as the cashier, with a civilian driver and an armed private from the UNEF provost company, was making his regular tour in a station wagon to pay civilian employees.

THE STARS SAY - By ESTRELLITA

FOR TOMORROW
Sunday's vibrations are somewhat mixed. Unless you are tactful with family and friends, unpleasantness and friction could develop to spoil your day. However, it's an excellent period in which to make plans for the future and, if you must work, to launch progressive innovations.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY
If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates that, during the next four months, you should take advantage of every available opportunity to advance yourself in your job or business, since achievements during this period will help you to further long-range goals considerably.

Financial gain may not keep pace with career advancement in the immediate future, but good planning now should yield fine results in this respect by mid-1958. Where domestic and social relationships are concerned, you can look forward happily to the next two months; also the period between late May and September. Travel will also be favored during the latter period.

A child born on this day will be endowed with ambition, great intelligence and a nice sense of humor.

THE DAY AFTER TOMORROW
Generally speaking, it would be well to stick to routine matters on Monday. New ventures are not under particularly propitious rays, but you can and should make plans for improving your status in the future.

If Monday is your birthday, use all of your imagination and originality to further pet projects now. Conscientious efforts put forth during the next four months should help you to achieve many ambitions, but where finances are concerned, be conservative for the time being. A good trend, in this connection, is indicated in mid-1958.

Domestic and social activities should prove stimulating between now and early February; also between late May and September. dream of travel in May, August or You may realize a long-cherished November and, if you are single, July and August will be especially propitious for new romance.

A child born on this day will be ingenious, self-reliant and endowed with great personal magnetism.
